Port Angeles dentist surrenders license to state officials

OLYMPIA — Port Angeles dentist William E. Gray (DE00003939) surrendered his license in an agreement with the state Department of Health that settles charges against him.

Gray's license was suspended by the state in January 2013 due to concerns that he could no longer practice dentistry with reasonable skill and safety due to a physical or mental condition. The license surrender ends that case.

The documents in the case can be seen online by clicking "Look up a health care provider" on the Department of Health website; copies can be requested by calling 360-236-4700. That's also the number to call to file complaints against health care providers in Washington.

The Department of Health and Dental Quality Assurance Commission protect and promote public health, safety, and welfare in Washington by regulating the competency and quality of health care providers. The agency establishes, monitors, and enforces qualifications for licensing, consistent standards of practice, continuing competency mechanisms, and discipline. Rules, policies, and procedures promote the delivery of quality health care to people in Washington.
